Ref: UG Almanac of B.Tech. I year – ODD Semester - A.Y. 2021-22

The academic schedule for newly admitted B.Tech I year students has commenced on 01.12.2021 (Monday). As per the almanac (B.Tech. I-Year for the A.Y. 2021-22), the FIRST SEMESTER STUDENTS have to take the Minor-I exams, from 27.12.2021 to 29.12.2021.

Students will have to take those Minor exams while attending the regular class work.

All the first semester students are advised to

1. check CourseWeb for course related information, handouts, ATLP Assignments, Weekly tutorial sheets, Assignments, Special Assignments and more.
2. be in continuous learning/preparation from day one.
3. attend classes regularly and make class notes, participate actively during class discussions.
4. solve ATLP assignments on daily basis.
5. download weekly tutorial sheet and attend tutorial classes with full preparation. Your course faculty will instruct you to solve the tutorial problems on the black board.
6. solve the assignment A1 & A2 problems in a separate notes. Whenever a particular topic is covered in class, look at the assignment sheet and solve the related assignment problem. With this you can submit assignments of all courses on or before deadline without any academic pressure
7. pay attention on special assignments: summarizing course research papers and course patents
8. submit assignments in time.

Dear Students, the time flies so fast and every day is important for the teaching leaning process and examinations. You should be ready to take Minor examinations without any special preparation. Be in continuous learning mode.

Good Luck!
